PROTECTIVE ORDER

The Court having received and reviewed the defendant's Motion for Protective Order and finding that just cause exists for granting of said motion, it is hereby ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that said Protective Order be set in place and states as follows:

A. State Farm Fire and Casualty Company ("State Farm") possesses certain information and documents that contain confidential, proprietary, or trade secret information that may be subject to discovery in this action, but that should not be made publicly available.

B. The parties therefore request that the Court enter the following Protective Order to properly balance the discovery rights of the Plaintiffs with State Farm's rights to protect its private, confidential, proprietary, or trade secret information.

The Court ORDERS:

1. All production and disclosure of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER, by State Farm during this litigation shall be governed by this Order, including, but not limited to, information contained in or derived from documents, deposition testimony, deposition exhibits, trial testimony, computer memory or archives, other written, recorded or graphic matter, and all copies, excerpts, or summaries thereof (collectively, "information").

2. Information subject to this Protective Order shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER by State Farm by stamping "CONFIDENTIAL," "TRADE SECRET," or otherwise indicating confidentiality, trade secret or produced subject to this Protective Order, as appropriate, on the face of a single-page document, on at least the initial page of a multi-page document, and in a prominent location on the exterior of any tangible object. Any electronically stored information may be designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER through a correspondence providing the media and a hard copy or printout shall be treated as protected material of the same designation. Designation may only be made after a good faith review by counsel of record and counsel making a designation shall comply with the standards set forth in [State/Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g)] when designating information as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER.

3. With respect to deposition testimony, State Farm may, either on the record at the deposition or by written notice to counsel for Plaintiffs no later than thirty-five (35) days after receipt of the transcript of said deposition, designate portions of testimony as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER. All testimony, regardless of whether designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER on the record, shall be treated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER until thirty-five (35) days after receipt of the transcript of said deposition by all parties. Certain depositions may, in their entirety, be designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER prior to being taken because of the anticipated testimony. Furthermore, any document designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER shall maintain that designation and the protections afforded thereto if introduced or discussed during a deposition.

4. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure by State Farm of information considered to be CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of State Farm's claim of protection pursuant to this Protective Order, either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other information relating thereto. Any such inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed information shall be designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER as soon as reasonably practicable after either party becomes aware of the erroneous disclosure and shall thereafter be treated as such by all receiving persons absent re-designation pursuant to Court order. Upon receipt of the properly designated documents, the recipient must return or destroy the non-designated set within three (3) days. If the recipient destroys the documents, then the recipient must provide written certification of the destruction to the producer of the information within three (3) days of receipt of the properly designated documents. In addition, the production or disclosure by State Farm of an attorney-client privileged, attorney work product, or other protected document or information, whether inadvertent or otherwise, shall not be deemed a waiver of the privilege, work product, or other protection or immunity from discovery by State Farm in this or any subsequent state or federal proceeding pursuant to [State/Federal Rule of Evidence 502] regardless of the circumstances of disclosure. If any party becomes aware of the production or disclosure of such protected information by State Farm, that party shall provide written notice of such production or disclosure within three (3) days after it becomes aware that protected information has been disclosed or produced.

5. When information which is CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER is presented, quoted or referenced in any deposition, hearing, trial or other proceeding, counsel for the offering party shall make arrangements or, when appropriate, request the Court to make arrangements, to ensure that only persons entitled to such information pursuant to Paragraph 8 are present during such presentation, quotation or reference.

6. Subject to the requirements of Paragraph 10 of this Agreement, no person receiving information designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER shall disclose it or its contents to any person other than those described in Paragraph 8 below; no such disclosure shall be made for any purposes other than those specified in that paragraph; and in no event shall such person make any other use of such information. Counsel shall be responsible for obtaining prior written agreement to be bound to the terms of this Agreement pursuant to Paragraph 8 below. Counsel shall be responsible for maintaining a list of all persons to whom any information so designated is disclosed and, for good cause shown, such list shall be made available for inspection by counsel for State Farm upon order of the Court; provided, however, that the requirements of this sentence shall not apply to disclosures made pursuant to Paragraphs 8(h) and/or 10 of this Protective Order.

7. Except as agreed by State Farm or as otherwise provided herein, including in Paragraphs 8(h) and 10 of this Protective Order, information designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER shall (1) only be used in the preparation for trial and/or any appeal of this Action and (2) be maintained in confidence by the party(ies) to whom it is produced and not disclosed by such party(ies) except to persons entitled to access thereto pursuant to Paragraph 8 below.

8. Information designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER by State Farm shall be disclosed only to the following persons:

- (a) attorneys actively working on or supervising the work on this case;
- (b) persons regularly employed or associated with the attorneys actively working on this case whose assistance is required by said attorneys in the preparation for trial, at trial, or at other proceedings in this case;

- (c) the parties, including designated representatives and counsel for the entity defendant;
- (d) expert witnesses and consultants retained in connection with this proceeding, to the extent such disclosure is necessary for preparation, trial or other proceedings in this case and the expert or consultant has signed a written acknowledgement;
- (e) the Court and its employees ("Court Personnel");
- (f) stenographic and video reporters who are engaged in proceedings necessarily incident to the conduct of this action;
- (g) deponents, witnesses, or potential witnesses, who have first-hand knowledge of the document and have signed a written acknowledgment;
- (h) the Georgia Department of Insurance, law enforcement officers, and/or other government agencies, as permitted or required by applicable state and federal law;
- (i) a jury involved in litigation concerning the claims and any defenses to any claims in this lawsuit;
- (j) anyone as otherwise required by law;

(k) as authorized by the parties specifically with the written consent of the designating party and who has signed a written acknowledgment; and

(l) other persons by written agreement of the parties when the person has signed a written acknowledgement.

9. Subject to Paragraph 10 of this Protective Order, the recipient of any information designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER pursuant to this Agreement shall maintain information in a secure and safe area and shall exercise due and proper care with respect to the storage, custody and use of all such information.

10. Nothing in this Protective Order disallows State Farm's maintenance or use of information and documents in or pursuant to: its electronic claim system; the privacy requirements of the Georgia Department of Insurance and other applicable state and federal laws; the records retention requirements of the Georgia Department of Insurance, the Georgia Rules of Professional Conduct, or other applicable state and federal laws; the records retention practices of State Farm; and any written Court Order. Further, nothing in this Protective Order disallows reporting of information by State Farm as permitted and/or required by applicable state and federal law, including reporting to the Insurance Services Office, Inc.

11. Plaintiffs may, at any time during the pendency of this lawsuit, request from State Farm, in writing, the release of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER from the requirements of the terms and provisions of this Protective Order. Upon receipt of such request, counsel for State Farm and counsel for Plaintiffs shall attempt to meet and confer. If the parties are unable to agree as to whether the information at issue is properly designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER, any party may raise the issue of such designation with the Court pursuant to the Court's Practice Standards. Any information submitted to the Court for review shall be submitted under seal and for in camera review. Pending a ruling from the Court, State Farm's designation shall control.

12. Nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude any party from responding to a validly issued subpoena, provided, however, that the party responding to the subpoena shall provide written notice of such subpoena to the attorney of the party that originally produced the documents within three (3) days of receipt of a subpoena, which seeks production or disclosure of the information which is designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER. Production or disclosure of information which is designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or

SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER may not occur until the deadline set forth in a validly issued subpoena, absent agreement of the parties.

13. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed as a limitation on the use of evidence in a submission to the Court or at trial, subject to such confidentiality provisions as may be ordered by the Court. However, prior to utilizing or filing a document which is designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER, Plaintiffs must provide notice to State Farm of its intentions. State Farm may then request that the document be filed with restricted access or under seal. Furthermore, any party shall have the right to request that any hearing or portions thereof be conducted in camera. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to modify the terms of this Protective Order.

14. The obligations of this Protective Order shall survive the termination of this action and continue to bind the parties and their counsel. The Court will have continuing jurisdiction to enforce this Protective Order irrespective of the manner in which this action is terminated.

15. Within thirty-five (35) days of the final determination of this action, each person or party who has received information designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER shall be obligated to return the same to State Farm, including any copies, or to destroy such information and certify that it has been destroyed, except that the recipient need not destroy or return transcripts of depositions and materials filed with the Court, and party may retain one archival copy of all pleadings in the action, regardless of whether such pleadings (including appendices) contain or refer to information designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER; subject to the legal requirements for maintenance and destruction of client files by the parties' counsel. Within seven (7) days of the final determination of this action, counsel of record who has provided information designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER to other individuals must inform those individuals that the matter has reached final determination and remind them of the return or destruction obligation.

16. This Protective Order may be modified by the Court at any time for good cause shown following notice to all parties and an opportunity for them to be heard.

17. Nothing in this Protective Order shall prohibit any party from filing a motion seeking further or different protection from the Court, or from filing a motion with respect to the manner in which the information designated CONFIDENTIAL, TRADE SECRET, or SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER shall be treated at trial.

18. Without written permission from the Designating Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material.

19. Any document, material, or other information designated as entitled to protection under this order, which is submitted to the Court in support of a pleading or motion, or introduced at a hearing, trial, or other proceeding in this action, may continue as protected material only by order of the Court in accordance with these procedures. If information entitled to protection under this order is submitted to the Court in support of a pleading or motion, such information shall maintain its protected status for ten (10) days. During this ten-day period, the party who designated the information as protected may move the Court to continue the protected status of the information by filing a motion for continued protection. The moving party shall indicate whether the motion is opposed. If the motion is opposed, the opposing party shall have five (5) days from the date that the original motion is filed to file a response.

A party who seeks to introduce protected information at a hearing, trial, or other proceeding shall advise the Court at the time of introduction that the information sought to be introduced is protected. If the party who designated the information as protected requests the protection be continued, the Court will conduct an in-camera review of the information to determine if the information is entitled to continued protection.
